California Parents Who Plan to Decline or Modify Vaccine Use for Their Children

Must Get Your Personal Belief or Religious Vaccine Exemption

On File Before December 31, 2015 Deadline

If you want your Personal Belief or Religious Vaccine Exemptions to be valid after July 1st 2016 and through the next grade span, you need to have an exemption on file at your school or day care by December 31, 2015. Otherwise you will need to obtain a Medical Exemption. The bill, Senate Bill 277, passed in June 2015, eliminated many of the rights of California parents to use non- medical exemptions for vaccines required before a child attends public or private school, preschool or daycare. Our colleagues at NVIC (National Vaccine Information Center) spell out what you need to know. Click Here to Read Full NVIC Alert.
